OUR STORY!

I take my cocktails very seriously, but I still want them to be fun. That's why, after years spent perfecting the recipes, I decided to put some of our favorite spritz cocktails from our craft bar into cans! We carefully craft each drink at our distillery-winery with infusions of hand chosen, organic botanicals, sustainably farmed wine, and real fruit juices.

Frenchie and friends want to join you at the pool and the beach, at picnics and cocktail parties, at bonfires and brunches, to make any hour feel like golden hour. Because you can't fit a personal bartender in your tote bag, but now you almost can.
